S.G.W.U. FRESHMAN ORIENTATION STARTS JULY 13

Sir George Williams University will soon begin day-long summer orientation sessions for 1,140 students coming into the first year collegial program this fall.

Running July 13 - 24 and August 17 - 31, the program, will introduce new students to many aspects of the university environment in as relaxed an atmosphere as possible.

From 8:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. groups of from 60 to 100 freshmen will tour the Hall Building with stops for briefings on guidance services, the Students' Association, the library, dean of students office and athletics. Sprinkled throughout the day are informal bull sessions with professors, senior students and administrators.

In charge of the program is dean of students administrative assistant Bill Moss with student Steve Schneider.
